Klamath County Public Health

COVID-19 chronology
July 2020

July 31, 2020

Klamath County reported a new case, bringing the total to 194. Six deaths brought Oregon's toll to 322. Oregon Health Authority reported 373 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 18,492.

The cases were in the following counties: Baker (3), Benton (3), Clackamas (22), Crook (2), Deschutes (9), Douglas (3), Gilliam (1), Hood River (3), Jackson (17), Jefferson (6), Josephine (1), Klamath (8), Lane (17), Lincoln (6), Linn (5), Malheur (12), Marion (44), Morrow (20), Multnomah (77), Polk (6), Sherman (1), Umatilla (40), Union (2), Wasco (2), Washington (45), and Yamhill (18).

Oregon's 317th death was a 90-year-old woman in Deschutes County who tested positive July 12 and died July 28, at her residence.

Oregon's 318th death was an 81-year-old man in Deschutes County who tested positive July 7 and died July 29. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 319th death was a 55-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 28 and died July 29, at Adventist Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 320th death was a 58-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 7 and died July 29, at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Wash. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 321st death was a 70-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 3 and died July 30, at Legacy Emanuel Hospital. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 322nd death was an 81-year-old man in Lincoln County who tested positive June 23 and died July 29. He had underlying conditions.

At 5 p.m. Pacific Time, there were 4,705,018 cases in the United States, with 2,327,072 recoveries and 156,741 deaths. National testing reached 58,579,205, with the global tally at 338,137,117. Worldwide there were 17,744,784 cases, with 10,945,479 recoveries and 682,191 deaths.

July 30, 2020

Klamath County announced eight new cases, bringing the total to 193. Five deaths brought Oregon's toll to 316. Oregon Health Authority reported 416 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the total to 18,131.

The cases were in the following counties: Baker (3), Benton (7), Clackamas (22), Clatsop (2), Columbia (3), Coos (4), Crook (2), Deschutes (15), Douglas (2), Hood River (5), Jackson (10), Jefferson (12), Klamath (1), Lake (1), Lane (10), Lincoln (2), Linn (4), Malheur (18), Marion (38), Morrow (9), Multnomah (61), Polk (7), Umatilla (101), Union (1), Wasco (2), Washington (63), and Yamhill (11).

Oregon's 312th death was a 78-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 10 and died July 28, at Good Samaritan Health Care Center in Yakima, Wash. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 313th death was an 85-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 15 and died July 27, at Providence Portland Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 314th death was a 68-year-old woman in Umatilla County who tested positive July 10 and died July 28, at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Wash. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 315th death was a 66-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 18 and died July 26, at Portland Adventist Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 316th death was an 82-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 4 and died July 23, at Providence Portland Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

NOTE: Umatilla's case counts appeared to be very high due to a delay in processing electronic laboratory reports (ELRs).

At 7 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,634,985 cases in the United States, with 2,284,965 recoveries and 155,285 deaths. National testing reached 57,521,144, with the global tally at 334,300,215. Worldwide there were 17,464,995 cases, with 10,727,063 recoveries and 676,409 deaths.

July 29, 2020

Klamath County announced a new case, bringing the count to 185. Eight deaths brought Oregon's toll to 311. Oregon Health Authority reported 304 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 17,721.

The were in the following counties: Benton (3), Clackamas (28), Clatsop (1), Crook (3), Deschutes (16), Douglas (2), Hood River (7), Jackson (13), Jefferson (5), Josephine (4), Klamath (2), Lane (13), Lincoln (2), Linn (1), Malheur (20), Marion (20), Morrow (5), Multnomah (82), Polk (4), Umatilla (4), Union (1), Wallowa (1), Wasco (3), Washington (51) and Yamhill (13).

Oregon's 304th death was a 72-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 10 and died July 23, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 305th death was a 90-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 23 and died July 27, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 306th death was a 94-year-old woman in Umatilla County who tested positive July 22 and died July 28, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 307th death was an 87-year-old woman in Umatilla County who tested positive July 16 and died July 27, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 308th death was an 85-year-old woman in Morrow County who tested positive July 10 and died July 21.

Oregon's 309th death was a 65-year-old man in Jackson County who tested positive June 29 and died July 25, at Providence Portland Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 310th death was a 79-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 27 and died July 28, at Providence Portland Medical Center. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 311th death was a 73-year-old woman in Umatilla County who tested positive June 21 and died July 19. Location of death is being confirmed. She had underlying conditions.

At 1 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,539,220 cases in the United States, with 2,217,963 recoveries and 153,154 deaths. National testing reached 56,411,597 and the global tally was 330,345,528. Worldwide there were 17,053,197 cases, with 10,362,861 recoveries and 666,454 deaths.

July 28, 2020

Klamath County announced three new cases bringing the count to 184. Fourteen deaths brought Oregon's toll to 303.

Oregon Health Authority Director Patrick Allen provided a message of condolence: "As we surpass 300 deaths related to COVID-19, including the 14 deaths reported today, I wish to extend sincere condolences on behalf of everyone at OHA to the families who have lost a loved one to this disease. It is a stark reminder of the work all Oregonians need to do to bring this pandemic under control. Together we can slow this disease and prevent this terrible loss of life."

OHA reported 342 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 17,416. The cases were in the following counties: Benton (3), Clackamas (15), Clatsop (3), Coos (3), Crook (2), Curry (1), Deschutes (7), Douglas (2), Harney (1), Jackson (10), Jefferson (9), Josephine (9), Klamath (2), Lane (6), Linn (5), Malheur (15), Marion (40), Morrow (7), Multnomah (74), Polk (13), Umatilla (75), Washington (31), and Yamhill (9).

Oregon's 290th death was a 77-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive June 19 and died July 22 at Portland Adventist Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 291st death was a 79-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 3 and died July 20 at Portland Adventist Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 292nd death was a 77-year-old woman in Jefferson County who tested positive June 30 and died July 23 at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend.

Oregon's 293rd death was a 94-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive July 19 and died July 26 at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 294th death was a 54-year-old man in Malheur County who tested positive June 24 and died July 15 at St. Luke's Nampa Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 295th death was a 26-year-old man in Yamhill County who died at his residence July 10. The death certificate listed COVID-19 disease or SARS-CoV-2, as a cause of death or as a significant condition that contributed to his death.

Oregon's 296th death was a 91-year-old woman in Clackamas County who became symptomatic July 22, after close contact with a confirmed case, and died July 26.

Oregon's 297th death was an 88-year-old man in Deschutes County who tested positive on July 23 and died on July 25 at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 298th death was a 78-year-old woman in Deschutes County who tested positive July 12 and died July 23. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 299th death was a 64-year-old woman in Jefferson County who tested positive July 14 and died July 27.

Oregon's 300th death is an 82-year-old female in Jefferson County who tested positive on July 20 and died on July 26. Location of death is being confirmed. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 301st death is an 87-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 14 and died July 26 at Salem Hospital. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 302nd death was a 66-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive July 14 and died July 24. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 303rd death was an 84-year-old female in Umatilla County who tested positive July 22 and died July 25. She had underlying conditions.

At 3:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,488,483 cases in the United States, with 2,172,095 recoveries and 152,096 deaths. National testing reached 55,609,547, with the global tally at 327,663,788. Worldwide there were 16,844,218 cases, with 10,163,273 recoveries and 661,453 deaths.

July 27, 2020

Klamath County reported two new cases. Since reports were no longer happening over the weekend, one case was from Saturday and the other from Sunday.

Oregon Health Authority reported 340 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 17,088. The cases were in the following counties: Benton (2), Clackamas (7), Columbia (1), Coos (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (11), Douglas (1), Harney (1), Hood River (1), Jackson (11), Jefferson (9), Lane (8), Lincoln (1), Malheur (8), Marion (26), Morrow (4), Multnomah (119), Polk (9), Umatilla (47), Wasco (1), Washington (61), and Yamhill (9).

At 1:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,413,590 cases in the United States, with 2,120,191 recoveries and 150,174 deaths. National testing reached 54,761,405, with the global tally at 324,100,560. Worldwide cases numbered 16,563,156, with 9,941,448 recoveries and 654,266 deaths.

July 26, 2020

Three deaths brought Oregon's toll to 289. Oregon Health Authority reported 277 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 16,758.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (3), Benton (1), Clackamas (20), Columbia (2), Coos (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (21), Hood River (1), Jackson (15), Jefferson (5), Klamath (1), Lane (8), Lincoln (1), Linn (5), Malheur (10), Marion (30), Morrow (13), Multnomah (44), Polk (2), Umatilla (43), Wasco (5), Washington (39), and Yamhill (6).

Oregon's 287rd death was a 40-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 1 and died July 22, at Legacy Good Samaritan Medical Center. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 288th death was a 56-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 13 and died July 23, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 289th death was a 63-year-old woman in Malheur County who tested positive July 15 and died July 21, at Saint Alphonsus Medical Center in Ontario. She had underlying conditions.

At 1 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,350,337 cases in the United States, with 2,074,188 recoveries and 149,609 deaths. National testing reached 53,777,625, with the global total at 313,221,826. Worldwide there were 16,335,097 cases, with 9,783,193 recoveries and 650,438 deaths.

July 25, 2020

Four deaths brought Oregon's death toll to 286. Oregon Health Authority reported 408 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 16,492.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (2), Benton (1), Clackamas (30), Columbia (1), Coos (3), Crook (1), Deschutes (19), Douglas (6), Harney (1), Hood River (5), Jackson (7), Jefferson (9), Josephine (5), Klamath (3), Lane (5), Lincoln (2), Linn (3), Malheur (11), Marion (52), Morrow (10), Multnomah (73), Polk (11), Umatilla (80), Wasco (2), Washington (58), and Yamhill (8).

Oregon's 283rd death was a 66-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive June 14 and died July 14, at Adventist Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 284th death was an 88-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 10 and died July 21, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 285th death was an 87-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive July 7 and died July 17.

Oregon's 286th death was an 85-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 14 and died July 24

At 10 a.m. Pacific Time there were 4,278,034 cases in the United States, with 2,036,752 recoveries and 148,967 deaths. National testing reached 52,843,359, while the global tally was 310,359,343. Worldwide there were 16,060,317 cases, with 9,613,683 recoveries and 644,983 deaths.

July 24, 2020

Nine deaths brought Oregon's death toll to 282. The deaths are the highest number of deaths reported in a single day in Oregon since the start of the pandemic. Oregon Health Authority reported 396 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 16,104.

The new cases are in the following counties: Baker (1), Clackamas (25), Columbia (1), Crook (1), Curry (2), Deschutes (16), Douglas (6), Gilliam (1), Hood River (4), Jackson (5), Jefferson (22), Josephine (1), Klamath (2), Lane (16), Linn (7), Malheur (18), Marion (58), Multnomah (71), Polk (6), Umatilla (59), Wasco (1), Washington (54), and Yamhill (8).

Oregon's 274th death was a 61-year-old woman in Multnomah County who died July 18 at her residence. The death certificate listed COVID-19 disease, or SARS-CoV-2, as a cause of death, or as a significant condition that contributed to her death. No confirmatory testing for COVID-19 was performed, but this aligns with the CSTE probable case definition for a presumptive case, which OHA follows.

Oregon's 275th death was a 68-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive June 5 and died July 16, at Providence Portland Medical Center. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 276th death was a 92-year-old man in Deschutes County who tested positive July 12 and died July 18. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 277th death was a 96-year-old man in Deschutes County who tested positive July 12 and died July 23, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 278th death was a 90-year-old woman in Malheur County who tested positive July 9 and died July 23, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 279th death was a 74-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 3 and died July 22, at Salem Hospital. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 280th death was a 62-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 18 and died July 18.

Oregon's 281st death was an 87-year-old woman in Umatilla County who tested positive July 10 and died July 22. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 282nd death was a 69-year-old man in Umatilla who tested positive July 8 and died July 21, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

At 1 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,224,121 cases in the United States, with 1,996,943 recoveries and 148,104 deaths. National testing reached 52,230,220, while the global tally was 308,006,639. Worldwide there were 15,837,722 cases, with 9,440,980 recoveries and 639,725 deaths.

July 23, 2020

Klamath County reported 13 new cases. Two more deaths brought Oregon's death toll to 273. Oregon Health Authority reported 331 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 15,713.

The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (18), Columbia (3), Coos (3), Crook (1), Deschutes (18), Douglas (13), Hood River (1), Jackson (8), Jefferson (3), Josephine (3), Klamath (13), Lake (1), Lane (12), Lincoln (5), Linn (3), Malheur (10), Marion (39), Morrow (4), Multnomah (77), Polk (13), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (39), Wasco (6), Washington (33), and Yamhill (4).

Oregon's 272nd death was a 74-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive June 29 and died July 16, at Good Shepherd Health Care System. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 273rd death was a 79-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 21, at Salem Hospital. She had underlying conditions.

At 10:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,169,991 cases in the United States, with 1,979,617 recoveries and 147,333 deaths. National testing reached 51,552,175, while the global tally was 305,811,722. Worldwide there were 15,656,884 cases, with 9,338,917 recoveries and 636,576 deaths.

July 22, 2020

Klamath County announced seven new cases, bringing the count to 164. With two new deaths, the state's death toll was 271. Oregon Health Authority reported 264 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 15,393.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (1), Benton (3), Clackamas (24), Clatsop (1), Coos (3), Crook (2), Curry (1), Deschutes (8), Douglas (2), Grant (1), Hood River (4), Jackson (11), Jefferson (6), Josephine (1), Klamath (6), Lane (6), Lincoln (2), Linn (6), Malheur (13), Marion (31), Morrow (3), Multnomah (51), Polk (4), Umatilla (24), Wasco (1), Washington (45), and Yamhill (4).

Oregon's 270th death was a 77-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 9 and died July 20, in his residence.

Oregon's 271st death was an 82-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 16 and died July 21, at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston.

As of Friday, July 24, indoor venues such as restaurants, bars, gyms, movie theaters and houses of worship must limit occupancy to 100 people, down from 250, Gov. Kate Brown announced during a press briefing. Restaurants and bars will close by 10 p.m. instead of midnight in counties that are in Phase 2 of reopening, which covers much of the state. Lincoln, Multnomah, Clackamas and Washington counties were still in Phase 1.

At 1:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,072,692 cases in the United States, with 1,916,124 recoveries and 145,698 deaths. National testing reached 50,453,842, with the global tally at 301,909,436. Worldwide there were 15,246,192 cases, with 9,012,844 recoveries and 622,907 deaths.

July 21, 2020

Oregon's death toll was 269, following seven new deaths. Oregon Health Authority reported 299 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 15,139.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (2), Benton (1), Clackamas (15), Clatsop (3), Columbia (1), Coos (1), Deschutes (7), Douglas (3), Harney (2), Hood River (4), Jackson (5), Jefferson (8), Josephine (2), Klamath (1), Lake (1), Lane (3), Malheur (18), Marion (40), Morrow (10), Multnomah (67), Polk (3), Umatilla (59), Union (2), Wasco (1), Washington (32), and Yamhill (8).

Oregon's 263rd death was an 88-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive June 10 and died June 15, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 264th death was an 88-year-old woman in Malheur County who tested positive June 28 and died July 19.

Oregon's 265th death was a 52-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive June 24 and died July 18 at Legacy Emanuel Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 266th death was a 59-year-old man in Washington County who tested positive June 23 and died July 15, at Providence St. Vincent Medical Center. He did not have underlying conditions.

Oregon's 267th death was an 88-year-old man in Clackamas County who tested positive July 7 and died July 19, at Legacy Good Samaritan Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 268th death was an 87-year-old man in Clackamas County who tested positive June 23 and died July 20. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 269th death was a 47-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive June 29 and died July 17 at Providence St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla, Washington. He had underlying conditions.

At 1 p.m. Pacific Time there were 4,001,194 cases in the United States, with 1,864,444 recoveries and 144,619 deaths. National testing reached 49,687,540, while the global tally was 298,397,036. Worldwide there were 14,986,543 cases, with 8,789,332 recoveries and 616,122 deaths.

July 20, 2020

Klamath County announced seven new cases. Oregon saw two more lives lost, raising the state's death toll to 262.

Oregon Health Authority reported 277 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 14,847. The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (11), Clatsop (2), Columbia (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (19), Douglas (2), Harney (1), Hood River (2), Jackson (5), Jefferson (7), Josephine (2), Klamath (5), Lake (1), Lane (4), Lincoln (2), Malheur (10), Marion (30), Morrow (1), Multnomah (85), Polk (1), Umatilla (41), Washington (38), Yamhill (6).

Oregon's 261st death was a 76-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive June 22 and died July 17, at Legacy Good Samaritan Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 262nd death was a 92-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 18, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

At 4:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,960,402 cases in the United States, with 1,845,162 recoveries and 143,773 deaths. National testing reached 49,059,771 with the global tally at 296,715,662. Worldwide there were 14,839,120 cases, with 8,687,259 recoveries and 612,443 deaths.

July 19, 2020

Three deaths brought Oregon's toll to 260. Oregon Health Authority reported 436 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 14,579.

The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (19), Coos (2), Crook (5), Curry (1), Deschutes (13), Douglas (3), Hood River (6), Jackson (16), Jefferson (15), Josephine (4), Lake (1), Lane (10), Lincoln (1), Linn (4), Malheur (11), Marion (46), Morrow (8), Multnomah (123), Polk (5), Umatilla (78), Wallowa (1), Wasco (1), Washington (57), Yamhill (6).

Oregon's 258th death was a 90-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 17 at Salem Hospital. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 259th death was an 80-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 17 at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 260th death was a 62-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 14 and died July 18, at OHSU. She had underlying conditions.

At noon Pacific Time there were 3,868,751 cases in the United States, with 1,787,958 recoveries and 143,159 deaths. National testing reached 47,901,044, while the global tally was 292,769,800. Worldwide there were 14,542,660 cases, with 8,480,657 recoveries and 606,963 deaths.

July 18, 2020

Three deaths brought Oregon's death toll to 257. Oregon Health Authority reported 353 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 14,149.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (4), Clackamas (15), Clatsop (2), Coos (3), Crook (2), Deschutes (11), Douglas (4), Hood River (8), Jackson (7), Jefferson (2), Klamath (4), Lake (3), Lane (37), Lincoln (3), Linn (3), Malheur (5), Marion (31), Morrow (11), Multnomah (87), Polk (7), Sherman (3), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (35), Union (4), Wallowa (2), Wasco (5), Washington (47), and Yamhill (7).

Oregon's 255th death was a 78-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 14 and died July 17, at his residence.

Oregon's 256th death was a 60-year-old man in Wallowa County who tested positive July 8 and died July 16, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 257th death was an 81-year-old man in Lincoln County who died July 4 at his residence and tested positive post-mortem July 15. He had underlying conditions.

At 6 p.m. Pacific Time the United States had 3,833,017 cases, with 1,775,219 recoveries and 142,869 deaths. National testing reached 47,574,148, with the global tally at 290,878,946. Worldwide cases numbered 14,414,451, with 8,400,762 recoveries and 604,240 deaths.

July 17, 2020

Klamath County reported six new cases. The loss of five more lives brought Oregon's death toll to 254. Oregon Health Authority reported 307 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 13,802.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (2), Clackamas (19), Clatsop (1), Columbia (2), Coos (4), Deschutes (12), Douglas (3), Hood River (2), Jackson (12), Jefferson (7), Josephine (2), Klamath (2), Lane (10), Lincoln (1), Linn (3), Malheur (9), Marion (39), Morrow (6), Multnomah (88), Polk (3), Umatilla (38), Union (2), Wasco (1), Washington (37) and Yamhill (2).

Oregon's 250th death was a 77-year-old man in Wasco County who tested positive June 27 and died July 15 at OHSU Hospital. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 251st death was a 72-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 8 and died July 14, at his residence. He had no known underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 252nd death was a 99-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 15, at his residence. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 253rd death was an 82-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive July 6 and died July 16, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 254th death was a 35-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive July 6 and died July 11, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

At 1:30 p.m. Pacific Time In the United States there were 3,745,950 cases, with 1,697,910 recoveries and 141,678 deaths. National testing reached 46,309,397, while globally the tally was   287,325,394. Worldwide there were 14,105,650 cases, with 8,187,880 recoveries and 595,545 deaths.

July 16, 2020

Two deaths brought the state's death toll to 249. Oregon Health Authority reported 437 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 13,509.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (4), Clackamas (28), Clatsop (2), Coos (2), Deschutes (28), Douglas (4), Hood River (5), Jackson (8), Jefferson (6), Josephine (1), Klamath (3), Lane (12), Lincoln (3), Linn (4), Malheur (17), Marion (53), Morrow (8), Multnomah (108), Polk (7), Tillamook (2), Umatilla (50), Union (1), Wasco (2), Washington (76), and Yamhill (3).

The case count is the highest since the onset of the pandemic. The rise in cases was attributed to the spread of COVID-19 from social gatherings and sporadic spread. Worksite outbreaks and long term care facility outbreaks also are contributing cases to the daily count.

Since Oregon began reopening, there have been outbreaks when people get together to celebrate with family and friends. Some examples include:

- Graduations
- Birthdays
- Weddings
- Holidays

COVID-19 is spreading more among social activities involving groups of younger people. OHA has recorded outbreaks linked to:

- An exercise classes
- A fraternity party
- A bachelor party

While it is difficult not to celebrate these events as in the past, COVID-19 is spreading in communities and people must think hard about altering daily routines that may put people at risk.

OHA recommended that everyone:

- Limit the size of gatherings
- Keep distance from others
- Cover faces
- Find alternative ways for those who are vulnerable to participate.

Oregon's 248th death was a 97-year-old man in Malheur County who tested positive June 29 and died July 15, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 249th death was a 58-year-old woman in Malheur County who tested positive July 6 and died July 13.

Note: The date of Oregon's 244th death was reported inaccurately yesterday. The 63-year-old man in Deschutes County tested positive July 13 and died July 14, at St. Charles Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

At 12:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,657,022 cases in the United States, with 1,661,097 recoveries and 140,610 deaths. National testing reached 45,143,129, while global testing was 284,125,082. Worldwide there were 13,836,550 cases, with 8,031,435 recoveries and 589,609 deaths.

July 15, 2020

Four deaths brought Oregon's toll to 247. Oregon Health Authority reported 282 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 13,081.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (1), Benton (1), Clackamas (24), Columbia (2), Coos (2), Crook (1), Deschutes (12), Douglas (4), Jackson (9), Jefferson (2), Josephine (1), Klamath (1), Lane (9), Lincoln (2), Linn (2), Malheur (15), Marion (38), Morrow (3), Multnomah (59), Polk (4), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (27), Union (4), Wasco (2), Washington (50), and Yamhill (6).

Oregon's 244th death was a 63-year-old man in Deschutes County who tested positive June 13 and died June 14, at St. Charles Medical Center. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 245th death was a 61-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive April 13 and died May 6, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 246th death was an 85-year-old woman in Multnomah County who tested positive April 11 and died June 20, at Providence Portland Medical Center. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 247th death was a 61-year-old woman in Douglas County who tested positive June 28 and died July 12, at Covenant Hospital in Lubbock, Texas. She had underlying conditions.

OREGON HEALTH AUTHORITY NOTE: The death of a 71-year-old woman from Multnomah County who died May 5 was accidentally reported twice — once in the May 7 press release as Oregon's 120th death, and again in the May 8 press release as Oregon's 124th death. The total number of deaths today was amended to reflect this change.

At 10 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,616,747 cases in the United States, with 1,645,962 recoveries and 140,140 deaths. National testing reached 44,844,982, while global testing hit 282,248,712. Worldwide there were 13,694,593 cases, with 7,943,785 recoveries and 586,845 deaths.

July 14, 2020

Seven more deaths raised Oregon's toll to 244. The last time Oregon saw seven deaths in a single day was on April 28. Oregon Health Authority reported 380 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 12,805.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (3), Clackamas (21), Clatsop (1), Columbia (3), Coos (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (9), Douglas (2), Hood River (3), Jackson (7), Jefferson (2), Josephine (6), Klamath (2), Lane (8), Linn (2), Malheur (35), Marion (46), Morrow (7), Multnomah (76), Polk (1), Tillamook (3), Umatilla (76), Union (3), Wasco (3), Washington (53), and Yamhill (6).

Oregon's 238th death was an 86-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive June 3 and died July 12, at her residence. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 239th death was a 77-year-old man in Clackamas County who tested positive May 5 and died July 2, at OHSU Hospital. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 240th death was an 81-year-old woman in Wasco County who tested positive June 27 and died July 8. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 241st death was a 91-year-old man in Lincoln County who tested positive June 29 and died July 10, at his residence. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 242nd death was a 77-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive June 24 and died July 13, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 243rd death was a 70-year-old man in Malheur County who tested positive June 26 and died July 11, at St. Luke's Medical Center in Boise, Idaho. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 244th death was a 95-year-old woman in Lincoln County who tested positive June 29 and died July 13. She had underlying medical conditions.

At noon there were 3,507,632 cases in the United States, with 1,565,551 recoveries and 138,700 deaths. National testing reached 43,550,957 while global testing totaled 277,717,671. Worldwide there were 13,341,467 cases, with 7,582,361 recoveries and 577,963 deaths.

July 13, 2020

Klamath County reported three new cases, bringing the total to 140.

Gov. Kate Brown announced Oregon will ban indoor social gatherings of more than 10 people and will require people to wear face coverings outdoors when they cannot maintain a 6-foot distance from people outside their households. These measures take effect Wednesday.

Three deaths brought the state's death toll to 237. Oregon Health Authority reported 280 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 12,438. The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (20), Columbia (6), Coos (2), Gilliam (1), Hood River (2), Jackson (3), Klamath (1), Lane (4), Linn (1), Malheur (27), Marion (36), Morrow (9), Multnomah (82), Polk (2), Umatilla (28), Wallowa (1), Washington (47), and Yamhill (8).

Oregon's 235th death was a 67-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive July 8 and died July 11, in his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 236th death was a 76-year-old man in Clackamas County who tested positive July 1 and died July 4, at his residence. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 237th death was a 54-year-old man in Umatilla County who died July 8 at his residence and tested positive post-mortem July 9. He had underlying conditions.

Two worksite outbreaks reported of 20 cases or more. An outbreak of 20 cases was reported at Shearer's Foods in Umatilla County. The case count includes all persons linked to the outbreak, which may include household members and other close contacts to an employee. The outbreak investigation started June 26, but the initial case count was below the threshold for public disclosure.

An outbreak of 102 cases was reported at Snake River Correctional Institution in Malheur County. The case count includes all Oregon residents linked to the outbreak, which may include household members and other close contacts to an employee. The case count does not include any Idaho residents who may be associated with the outbreak, as laboratories report positive tests results to the state in which an individual resides. OHA is working closely with Idaho to coordinate contact tracing across state lines.

The outbreak investigation started June 24, but at that time the case count was below the threshold for public disclosure. The outbreak was reported in the COVID-19 Weekly Report on July 8 with six cases.

State and county public health officials are working with these organizations to address these outbreaks and protect the health of workers.

At 2:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,468,217 cases in the United States, with 1,542,075 recoveries and 138,108 deaths. National testing reached 42,999,738, while the global tally hit 275,583,777. Worldwide there were 13,203,501 cases, with 7,472,088 recoveries and 574,476 deaths.

July 12, 2020

Oregon lost two more people, raising the state's death toll to 234. Oregon Health Authority reported 332 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 12,170.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (1), Benton (2), Clackamas (33), Deschutes (16), Douglas (4), Hood River (1), Jackson (2), Jefferson (5), Klamath (2), Lane (10), Linn (8), Malheur (71), Marion (28), Morrow (7), Multnomah (70), Polk (4), Sherman (1), Umatilla (27), Wasco (1), Washington (35), Yamhill (4).

Oregon's 233rd death was an 86-year-old woman in Malheur County who tested positive June 29. The date and location of death were still being confirmed. She had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 234th death was a 93-year-old woman in Washington County who died July 7 and tested positive post-mortem July 11.

At 7:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,413,995 cases, with 1,517,084 recoveries and 137,782 deaths. National testing reached 42,469,607 and the global reach was 272,222,561. Worldwide there were 13,035,942 cases, with 7,376,186 recoveries and 571,571 deaths.

July 11, 2020

Oregon Health Authority reported 409 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 11,851. The high number is partially due to a transition to a new reporting system, which prevented the processing of positive cases for a few hours Thursday. Those cases are included in this case count.

The new cases reported were in the following counties: Baker (2), Benton (6), Clackamas (29), Columbia (1), Coos (2), Deschutes (15), Douglas (2), Hood River (2), Jackson (5), Jefferson (4), Josephine (3), Klamath (4), Lane (13), Lincoln (1), Linn (2), Malheur (16), Marion (61), Morrow (7), Multnomah (99), Polk (2), Sherman (1), Umatilla (50), Union (1),Wallowa (1), Wasco (10), Washington (55), Yamhill (15).

At 6:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,355,646 cases in the United States, with 1,490,446 recoveries and 137,403 deaths. National testing reached 41,770,336 and global testing 269,972,827. Worldwide there were 12,839,582 cases, with 7,271,834 recoveries and 567,574 deaths.

July 10, 2020

Two more lives were lost, raising the state's death toll to 232. Oregon Health Authority reported 275 new confirmed and presumptive cases, of bringing the state total to 11,454.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (1), Benton (6), Clackamas (11), Crook (1), Deschutes (8), Douglas (2), Hood River (4), Jackson (9), Jefferson (15), Josephine (2), Lane (10), Linn (3), Malheur (21), Marion (28), Morrow (3), Multnomah (37), Polk (3), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (51), Union (1), Wallowa (1), Wasco (5), Washington (44), Yamhill (8).

Oregon's 231st death was a 62-year-old man in Union County who tested positive June 16 and died July 2, at Saint Regional Medical Center in Boise. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 232nd death was a 99-year-old woman in Lincoln County who tested positive June 26 and died July 9. She had underlying medical conditions.

At 2:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,274,967 cases in the United States, with 1,444,207 recoveries and 136,437 deaths. National testing reached 40,874,033, while global numbers hit 266,707,805. Worldwide there were 12,548,775 cases, with 7,102,417 recoveries and 560,316 deaths.

July 9, 2020

Six more deaths raised the state's death toll to 230. Oregon Health Authority reported 389 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 11,188.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (1), Clackamas (20), Clatsop (1), Columbia (2), Coos (4), Crook (3), Deschutes (5), Hood River (1), Jackson (7), Jefferson (8), Josephine (2), Lake (2), Lane (18), Lincoln (15), Linn (3), Malheur (31), Marion (47), Morrow (12), Multnomah (86), Polk (2), Umatilla (55), Union (4), Wallowa (1), Wasco (5), Washington (46), Yamhill (8).

The case count was the highest total daily case count since the onset of the pandemic. The recent increase in cases is attributed to workplace outbreaks and community spread.

Oregon's 225th death was a 63-year-old woman in Crook County who became symptomatic July 1 after close contact with a confirmed case and died July 8, at her residence. She had no underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 226th death was an 83-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive July 4 and died July 3. The place of death is being confirmed. He had underlying conditions.

Oregon's 227th death was a 71-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive June 26 and died July 7, at his residence. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 228th death was a 75-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive June 10 and died July 2 at Providence St. Vincent Medical Center. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 229th death was a 78-year-old woman in Clackamas County who died June 18 at her residence. More details were pending.

Oregon's 230th death was a 90-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive May 9 and died June 1, at his home. He had underlying conditions.

At 8:30 a.m. Pacific Time there were 3,170,068 cases in the United States, with 1,393,363 recoveries and 135,059 deaths. National testing reached 39,539,466, while the global tally was 263,327,883. Worldwide there were 12,231,587 cases, with 6,905,644 recoveries and 553,571 deaths.

July 8, 2020

The Oregon Health Authority reported 217 new presumed and confirmed cases of the coronavirus and four deaths, bringing the state's total to 10,817 cases and 224 deaths.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (3), Clackamas (19), Clatsop (1), Columbia (1), Coos (2), Curry (1), Deschutes (3), Douglas (2), Harney (1), Hood River (1), Jackson (5), Jefferson (1), Josephine (2), Lane (10), Lincoln (3), Linn (8), Malheur (12), Marion (15), Morrow (10), Multnomah (30), Umatilla (43), Union (3), Wasco (1), Washington (31), Yamhill (9).

An 85-year-old woman in Benton County is Oregon's 221st victim of the coronavirus, state officials reported. She had underlying health conditions and died in her home June 28 after testing positive nearly a month before.

The 222nd victim of the coronavirus in Oregon is a 55-year-old in Multnomah County. He died at his home June 28 after testing positive six days prior. He had underlying health conditions.

Oregon's 223rd death from the coronavirus is a 91-year-old woman in Marion County. She had underlying health conditions and died on July 5 in her home after testing positive June 18.

A 36-year-old man is Oregon's 224th victim of COVID-19. He tested positive on June 3 on died at Legacy Emanuel Medical Center July 7. He, too, had underlying health conditions.

At 9 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,158,932 cases in the United States, with 1,392,679 recoveries and 134,862 deaths. National testing reached 39,479,437 and the global tally hit 261,813,755. Worldwide there were 12,166,688 cases, with 6,824,378 recoveries and 552,046 deaths.

July 7, 2020

Five more lives were lost in Oregon, raising the state's death toll to 220. Oregon Health Authority reported 218 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 10,605.

The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (2), Clackamas (18), Columbia (2), Coos (4), Crook (1), Douglas (3), Hood River (3), Jefferson (2), Josephine (3), Klamath (1), Lake (1), Lane (15), Lincoln (1), Linn (1), Malheur (7), Marion (23), Morrow (2), Multnomah (52), Polk (6), Umatilla (20), Union (5), Wallowa (1), Wasco (2), Washington (27), Yamhill (16).

Oregon's 216th death was a 93-year-old man in Multnomah County who tested positive June 25 and died June 30, at Providence Portland Medical Center. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 217th death was a 74-year-old woman in Yamhill County who tested positive June 23 and died June 30, at Willamette Valley Medical Center. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 218th death was a 56-year-old woman in Linn County who tested positive May 27 and died July 5, at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 219th death was an 80-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive June 14 and died July 6, at his residence. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 220th death was a 62-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive June 10 and died July 6, at Salem Hospital. She had underlying medical conditions.

At 12:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,063,438 cases in the United States, with 1,337,889 recoveries and 133,484 deaths. National testing reached 38,473,748, and the global tally was 257,767,237. Worldwide there were 11,848,260 cases, with 6,607,858 recoveries and 543,609 deaths.

July 6, 2020

Klamath County reported six new cases, bringing the total to 131. Five of those cases were announced by Oregon Health Authority Saturday. Klamath County Public Health is no longer providing updates on weekends.

OHA reported 168 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 10,395. The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (1), Clackamas (16), Clatsop (3), Columbia (3), Deschutes (2), Douglas (1), Hood River (1), Jackson (1), Jefferson (1), Josephine (3), Lane (10), Malheur (10), Marion (16), Morrow (4), Multnomah (41), Polk (1), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (16), Wasco (3), Washington (34). The death toll remained at 215.

At 11:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 3,040,833 cases in the United States, with 1,324,947 recoveries and 132,979 deaths. National testing reached 38,217,640 and the global number was 256,710,581. Worldwide there were 11,747,823 cases, with 6,535,990 recoveries and 540,840 deaths.

July 5, 2020

COVID-19 claimed two more lives in Oregon, raising the state's death toll to 215. Oregon Health Authority reported 301 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 10,230.

The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (25), Columbia (3), Crook (1), Deschutes (8), Douglas (4), Hood River (5), Jackson (3), Jefferson (1), Josephine (3), Lane (10), Malheur (15), Marion (38), Morrow (9), Multnomah (72), Sherman (1), Umatilla (41), Union (1), Wasco (3), Washington (51), Yamhill (7).

Oregon's 214th death was a 96-year-old woman in Lincoln County who tested positive June 30 and died July 2, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 215th death was a 70-year-old man in Marion County who tested positive June 11 and died July 3, at Salem Hospital. He had underlying medical conditions.

More information was known about Oregon's 213th death. She was an 86-year-old woman in Lincoln County who tested positive June 29 and died July 1, at Samaritan Pacific Community Hospital. She had underlying medical conditions.

Note: Technical issues prevented negative test results from being processed and reported yesterday; those results were processed into the database yesterday. Today's total includes negative test results for July 3 and 4.

At 2 p.m. Pacific Time there were 2,970,952 cases in the United States, with 1,280,758 recoveries and 132,524 deaths. National testing reached 37,489,971. Worldwide there were 11,497,400 cases, with 6,307,882 recoveries and 535,394 deaths. Global testing reached 252,783,176.

July 4, 2020

Four more lives were lost in Oregon, raising the state's death toll to 213. Oregon Health Authority reported 303 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 9,930.

The new cases were in the following counties: Baker (1), Benton (2), Clackamas (26), Clatsop (2), Columbia (2), Deschutes (11), Douglas (1), Gilliam (1), Jackson (7), Jefferson (1), Josephine (8), Klamath (5), Lake (1), Lane (12), Lincoln (1), Linn (1), Malheur (31), Marion (18), Morrow (11), Multnomah (58), Polk (3), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (49), Wasco (4), and Washington (46).

Oregon's 210th death was 93-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive June 27 and died July 1, at his residence. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 211th death was a 74-year-old man in Umatilla County who tested positive June 21 and died June 26, at Good Shepherd Medical Center. He had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 212th death was a 94-year-old woman in Clackamas County who tested positive June 16 and died June 29, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

Oregon's 213th death was an 86-year-old woman in Lincoln County who tested positive June 29. Her date and place of death, and underlying medical conditions are being confirmed.

At 4:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 2,934,814 cases in the United States, with 1,256,206 recoveries and 132,313 deaths. National testing reached 36,899,902. Worldwide there were 11,367,359 cases, with 6,223,027 recoveries and 532,805 deaths. Global testing reached 250,544,816.

July 3, 2020

Oregon Health Authority reported 344 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 9,636.The new cases were in the following counties: Benton (7), Clackamas (22), Clatsop (1), Columbia (3), Coos (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (9), Douglas (1), Jackson (9), Jefferson (5), Josephine (3), Klamath (2), Lake (1), Lane (16), Lincoln (18), Linn (2), Malheur (20), Marion (32), Morrow (10), Multnomah (59), Polk (5), Sherman (1), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (49), Union (8), Wasco (10), Washington (46), and Yamhill (1).

The Health Authority also released a table showing recent trends in cases by county between mid-June and the beginning of July. These trends show where the virus is spreading at the fastest rate and which counties have the highest rates of "sporadic" transmission – cases that do not have a clear epidemiological link to other outbreaks or clusters of infections and therefore indicate that the virus is spreading uncontained in a community.

Governor Kate Brown identified eight counties that will be placed on a "Watch List" based on these data: Jefferson, Lake, Lincoln, Malheur, Morrow, Umatilla, Union, Wasco. State and local health officials will closely monitor the situation in these counties in coming days and prioritize additional resources to suppress the virus in these hotspot communities.

At 6:30 p.m. Pacific Time there were 2,890,588 cases in the United States, with 1,235,488 recoveries and 132,101 deaths. National testing reached 36,297,195. Worldwide there were 11,189,325 cases, with 6,091,301 recoveries and 529,063 deaths. Global testing reached 248,637,674.

July 2, 2020

Oregon Health Authority announced Klamath County's death, raising state's death toll to 209. OHA reported 375 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 9,294. The new cases were in the following counties: Clackamas (22), Columbia (1), Crook (1), Deschutes (9), Douglas (2), Jackson (15), Jefferson (8), Josephine (8), Lane (15), Lincoln (3), Linn (3), Malheur (16), Marion (32), Morrow (8), Multnomah (64), Tillamook (1), Umatilla (88), Union (5), Wasco (2), Washington (67), and Yamhill (5).

Oregon's 209th death was 73-year-old woman in Klamath County who tested positive June 20 and died June 30. She had underlying medical conditions.

The day's case count was Oregon's largest single day total since the beginning of the pandemic, following the previous largest on Wednesday. Oregon had experienced five weeks of case growth and cases were rising faster in rural communities and in central and eastern Oregon. The largest county case count for the day was Umatilla County with 88 new cases attributed to outbreaks and community spread.

Earlier in the week, Governor Kate Brown ordered face coverings to be worn in all indoor public places throughout the state. Masks and face coverings, along with maintaining six-feet of distance between people was reported to contain the spread of COVID-19.

At 10 a.m. Central European Summer Time the World Health Organization reported 10,533,779 cases worldwide with 512,842 deaths. In the United States there were 2,616,949 cases with 127,133 deaths.

July 1, 2020

A new death brought Oregon's toll to 208. Oregon Health Authority reported 281 new confirmed and presumptive cases, bringing the state total to 8,931. It was the highest daily case count since the beginning of the pandemic.

The cases were in the following counties: Baker (3), Benton (2), Clackamas (20), Clatsop (1), Columbia (1), Deschutes (4), Douglas (2), Jackson (3), Jefferson (7), Klamath (4), Lake (2), Lane (12), Lincoln (12), Linn (7), Malheur (16), Marion (27), Morrow (2), Multnomah (38), Polk (8), Tillamook (2), Umatilla (42), Union (5), Wallowa (2), Wasco (4), Washington (48), and Yamhill (7).

Oregon's 208th death was a 91-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive June 18 and died June 29. She had underlying medical conditions.

More information was available about Oregon's 192nd death, which was initially reported June 22. She was a 90-year-old woman in Marion County who tested positive June 18 and died June 21, at her residence. She had underlying medical conditions.

At 10 a.m. Central European Summer Time the World Health Organization reported 10,357,662 cases worldwide with 508,055 deaths. In the United States there were 2,573,393 cases with 126,573 deaths.