On June 21, 2022, the Klamath County Sheriff's Office - Animal Control Division held a Pet Vaccination Clinic at the Klamath County Fairgrounds. With the help of many volunteers the event was a success and hopefully a benefit to the community as well.

Throughout the day 146 pets and their owners were provided service. 127 rabies vaccines were administered, 119 dog licenses were issued or renewed, and 53 dogs and cats were microchipped.

Special thanks to those helping with the clinic appear below:

Dr. Tania Shaw "The Happy Vet", technicians and staff
Klamath County Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)
Klamath County Sheriff's Office Mature Volunteer Program (MVP's)
Klamath County Fairgrounds staff
South Sixth Street Clinic
Patterson Veterinary Supply

Thank you volunteers and all those that made this a positive event for our community.
